Gorman Lecture Series Features Dr. Morgan

On Wednesday, March 15, Dr. Russell H. Morgan will speak on the topic: "Problem of Radiation Hazards." The lecture which will begin at 1 p.m. will be held in the student lounge of the Andrew White Center. The lecture is opened to the public, and all are invited to attend. Dr. Morgan has been professor of radiology at Johns Hopkins University. He is also Radiologist-in-Chief at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Naturalized Citizen

Dr. Morgan is a naturalized citizen of the United States, he was born in London, Ontario, and received both his A.B. and M.D. degrees at the University of Western Ontario.

His internship at Harper Hospital in Detroit was followed by a two year residing in pathology at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Later he spent a two year residency in radiology at the University of Chicago clinics.

Radiology Prof

He was the associate professor of radiology at the University of Chicago. (Cont. on p.5, col. 2)

Council Sets Election Date

Petitions for the 1961 version of the Loyola College general elections will be made available in the Registrar's Office from March 15 through March 24.

This will be the initial election, on a school-wide basis, to be held under the new election ordinances which went into effect last October. According to these ordinances, a student's accumulative Quality Point Average (QPA) must meet a specified standard before he is accepted as a candidate.

Offices

Up for grabs will be the presidency of the Student Council, the presidency of the Athletic Association, and the four class officers for the freshmen, sophomore and junior years.

The underclassmen will also be electing those students who will serve as their representatives for the 1961-62 school year.

Schedule

The deadline for filing petitions is March 29; no late petitions will be accepted. The nominations must then be approved by both the Council's Election Committee and the Dean of the college.

Beginning on April 12, a two week campaign period will be held culminating in the general elections on April 26.

Alpha Sigma Nu Initiates Serve New Members

Last Tuesday at 6 o'clock in the Faculty Lounge in the Andrew White Center in a ceremony presided over by Fr. Vincent J. Beatty, seven new members were initiated in the Loyola Chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu, the National Jesuit Honor Fraternity. The initiated consisted of four juniors and three seniors.

The society has been holding national conventions every two years since 1926. At present, William G. Rogers, Jr., the Loyola Class of '48, is the fraternity's national president.

Veteran Members

Initiated this year are: F. Thomas Annulis, a junior math major; Joseph B. Chepaitis, junior history major; John W. Baynes, Jr., a junior chemistry major; Frederick W. Benson, a senior history major; John Q. Feller, a junior history major; Stephen A. Pretl, a senior math major and Richard M. Prodey, a senior English major.

Three Requirements

This year's veteran members of ASN are Anthony C. Hughes, the Societies president; John J. Conors Jr., T. Kenny Gray, Robert H. Goldsmith, and Janne R. Olson.

Upper 25%

Alpha Sigma Nu is one of the few honorary fraternities on campus and its members have the honor and distinction of being a selected few who meet the stringent requirements of three basic standards—scholarship, service and loyalty.

In order to be considered scholastically qualified for membership, a student must have, at all times during their attendance at Loyola College attained a class rank in the upper 25% of his class. However, in the case of presidential appointments, the scholastic requirements need not apply.

Service to the college is not (Cont. on p. 5, col. 1)

Thom Curtis To Head Model U. N. Assembly

Loyola's current crop of apprentice diplomats will have an opportunity to display their talents to the 1961 Model General Assembly of the United Nations to be held in the United Nations building in New York from March 23 to March 26.

Loyola will be represented by juniors Dick Moore, an A.B. Political Science major, who is president of the IRC and chairman of our delegation; Joe McCurdy, an A.B. History major; Ray Peters a B.S. Business major; and Tom Taylor, an A.B. Political Science major; also Pete Genovese, a sophomore A.B. English major; and John Kent an A.B. Political Science major.

Committees

Discussion and work will be carried on at the level of committees, of which there are six: Political, Social and Humanitarian, Trusteeship, Legal, Special on the Congo, and Economic. Features Editor Pete Genovese is a rapporteur of the last of these.

Curtis to Preside

Senior Tom Curtis, a B.S. Political Science major, has been elected president of the entire gathering and will preside over the Model General Assembly.

The IRC, which has as its goal the furthering of student body interest in international affairs, takes part in many co-curricular activities, of which this is probably

Editorial

On September 15, 1852, in two rented houses on Holliday Street, nine members of the Society of Jesus began teaching some ninety students in the basic rudiments of a liberal education. Thus began Loyola College.

In 108 years Loyola has developed considerably. One of the most convincing evidences of development is, of course, new buildings. We witnessed an addition last year, the Andrew White Student Center; and on March 25, ground will be broken for the much needed Engineering-Physics Building. Loyola development is proceeding rapidly.

Most students should now be familiar with the building fund drive, which is to secure the remaining $400,000 of the total cost of the new building. Recently, the parents of each Loyola College student received a letter from the chairmen of this drive, asking them to pledge $50 for each year of their son's attendance here. Certainly, few will be able to meet this demand in its entirety; however we feel that the esteemed chairmen are aiming high in order to ensure reasonable results. The important thing is that everyone donate what he can, for, as pointed out in the letter, the tuition paid does not account for the entire cost of a student's education.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. Editor:

The Greyhound has admirably served the student body as a sounding board of student opinion and also as a champion of student rights. I refer to Mr. Feller's outstanding columns on the Student Council and also the one on those despicable creatures--the Egg-breakers.

I would now like to open up another vista of student dissatisfaction. Why should instructors pass derogatory comments about students who are present in his class, or, worse yet, about students who are absent? I say this not only because I have suffered from this unprofessional attitude on the part of certain teachers but also because there are other students in the same category. No one, I believe, denies to the teacher the right to counsel or correct students, but hardly anyone--if anyone at all--would grant to an instructor the right to use his position in class as a platform for his own purely personal dislikes or prejudices against individual students or groups of students.

So I throw these thoughts out for discussion and would like to hear and see in print comments about this situation from both students and faculty.

the Watchdog

We suggest that Rol Sturm quit thanking us for the help which we gave him in winning of the U.M.O.C. award. Give credit where credit is due. Thank mother nature.

Congratulations to coach Bill Klarner and the Loyola natators on their spectacular win in the Mason Dixon tourney, last week.

Bill Kammer, the scourge of the Freshman class, is the Dog's winner of the "most unlikely to succeed" award. Not only does he continue to harass the military department, but now he has taken to coming to school wearing only one shoe. This immediately struck the members of his class funny, as he isn't even a Democrat.

The sophomores think that the R.O.T.C. movies are getting better all the time. Now, they take up a whole hour.

Vince Baldini has informed us that he is losing a great deal of weight now that Lent is here. We suggest that he can find it again suddenly if he only takes the trouble to turn around.

Did you know that: Joe Bowman is so lazy that even his car is shiftless.

Denny Smyth was rather disappointed with his swim in Loch Raven, last Friday, and rightly so. The reservoir was the first ice-filled container of the day in which he couldn't find an olive.

For anyone who's interested, Dick Prodey (he who resembles Rol Sturm) would like us to announce that he is putting his car on the market. The car, Dick assures us, is in very good shape and has an engine which is just loaded with juice. But then so are a lot of citrus fruits that we can think of.

On the subject of sales, one of the senior natators is announcing a first come, first served sale on a sweat suit which he has. Only those students with the initials A.U. need inquire.

We've gotten reports from Philadelphia that Bill Hoffman wears jockey shorts. This surprised everyone since Bill is not a jockey and there is no indication that he will be one in the near future.

A Campus Scene: Gus the Hatrack

Augustus was the title given to Gaius Julius Caesar Octavianus or later, Octavion, on the assumption of the job of the first Roman emperor. Under the influence of this great leader, Rome reached its peak of glory in 27 B.C. and at Loyola College in the twentieth century, his duties are still of vast importance.

Although he was an influential political leader and the builder of eighty-two temples in the Augustian Age, his duties at Evergreen in the twentieth century have been reduced to more servile chores. Gus is presently stationed in the middle stairway in the center of the hall of the Library Building, where he patiently holds such items as cigarettes, ties, coats and scarfs for a number of Loyola students, and, we suspect, a few of the gayer faculty members.

Post Ghost

Among one of Gus's noteworthy achievements was the establishment of an efficient postal system in Rome. Besides his important job as a coat rack at Loyola College, he still has a secondary duty to guard the faculty mail boxes from bandits.

Imagine how Gus would have felt if, when standing on the stairs of the Forum stretching his arm out, some innocent soul stuck a cigarette in his outstretched hand or hung a coat on his shoulder! By the way, Gus, just as Alphonse Capone and other dignified men, including Father Lawler, are cigar smokers, so you should be one if you made sure that only the choicest Havana butts were allowed in your palms.

Future Shines

Our predictions for the future of the rack that we call Gus is that the heavy, yet endearing, old gentleman will remain standing in the spot which he has occupied for so many years and still serve the students with the pomp and the grandeur which has made him famous among Loyolans for so many years. Students come and go and faculty members at long length depart but our Gus will live on (no rational supposit, he) in the annals of the school's history. We are sure that many years hence, students will say "Hey, look, that statue's smoking."

Let Me At 'Em

By John Q. Feller

O.K., 'youse guys, fahl in. And that's just about how it all started again. The next two hours were utter chaos.

After wanting for many months, the little boys in their green uniforms ran with glee to the athletic field to enjoy two hours of leadership laboratory. Oily rifles, antiqued brass, grayish shoes, and smiling faces--all part of one great and glorious team. What's more, we can look forward to ten more weeks of the same.

Across the Mason-Dixon

Top honors this week go to our outstanding swimmers, who managed to cop the Mason-Dixon championship by a single point. Speaking of the swimming team, Paul Karpers is always coming in the newspaper office and complaining that his picture never gets in the paper. Well, Paul, I couldn't let you graduate feeling unwanted.

What's Coordination?

Joe Enoch, freshman class president tells me that the freshman class party is scheduled for the weekend of April 15. Just to avoid any conflict of scheduling, Joe contacted Fred Benson, P.R. C. O.

and asked him when Regimental competition was going to be held. Captain Fred told Joe not to worry and have the party on the 15, and he would take care of Regimentals. So when's the P.R. competition? Why Saturday, April 15, naturally!

From the Profs

During the tenure of any college student, he is bound to leave the Ivy Halls with many treasured recollections. Noticeably among these are those rare gems of expressions which various profs come off with during classes. Examples:

DR. KIRWIN: The trouble with Mary Tudor was that she was queen regnant and not queen pregnant.

DR. BOYLE: Tax, tax, tax; spend, spend; elect, elect, elect.

DR. VARGA: Me Tarzan . . .

CAPT. LAWRENCE: Know why the Artillery is the King of the Army? DEAN GALVIN: Don't quote me. That's strictly off the record.

FATHER DAVISH: Oh, no, this'll never do. We don't wear bermudas in the library.

FATHER SCANLAN: There's no doubt about it.

DR. GUMNICK: Incidentally, while I'm on the subject . . .

DR. KALTENBACH: History repeats itself and every time the price goes up.

If any of the students recall any similar and impressionable pronouncements, let me know.

F. SMITH

"Into the life of every man some rain must fall."

Campus Question

Question: What is your opinion of Compulsory R. O. T. C.

Anonymous Economics Major '61

The Brasso stock and also the spiffy stock would inevitably drop sharply, causing economic depressions in the areas where these plants are located. Therefore, for the economic good of the country, we must maintain compulsory R.O.T.C. Thomas J. Bollinger Acct. '63

Many students complain about compulsory R.O.T.C. or anything, including attendance at First Friday Mass. I would imagine, however, without a compulsory basic course in R.O.T.C., there would not be anybody available for the advanced students to train in the principles of leadership.

Joe Bowman B. S. History '62

The R.O.T.C. at Loyola College is nothing more than an attempt to get Federal aid. Although it does produce some outstanding students, the majority of its members simply "grin and bear it" in a deep silence. There are much better pastimes to occupy the student's spare hours than compulsory R.O.T.C.

Larry Onderjack A. B. English

If any other system could be adopted to collegiate institutions which would not be merely a variation of the old compulsory system now in operation, it would most certainly gain the military fewer students but these would most certainly be of a higher calibre than now displayed in our current corps. John Przybylski Pol. Sc. '64

In my opinion, R.O.T.C. should not be compulsory because if a student does not want to be in it, he will not do his best. Therefore, he would pull down the appearance of the brigade.

Dick Cooke A. B. English '64

Two year compulsory R.O.T.C. is hardly plausible, but is necessary if one wishes to continue on into the advanced course. If a student can last the four year program, he won't regret it when his time comes to serve (as an officer).

Pete Genovese A. B. English '63

Oh, no you don't, buddy. I know you, you're from the paper and I don't fully trust you guys. Thought you'd be a wise guy, hey Bunky, want to get me thrown out of R.O.T.C., huh, sharp guy? No You don't! What do you take me for, some kind of a sucker? Why, if they knew what I thought about R.O.T.C., I would't have one chance in a million of passing. Actually, though, I kind of like the uniform; I was never a boy scout. But, who cares what you write down? I've got friends on the paper. This will never get printed.

Harbor Lights

Tickets have been on sale for "The Music Man" since last Monday at Ford's box office. The musical hit begins its two-week engagement at Ford's on Monday March 13. Forrest Tucker and Joan Weldon, starring in "The Music Man" will make their first appearance to the Baltimore stages in this show, although they have played in a number of movies. A couple from "The Music Man" are "76 Trombones," "Till There Was You," and "Gary Indiana." The performances will start at 8:30, and no one will be seated during the first scene because of the importance of the opening number.

For anyone who likes folk music, Pete Seeger, an American folk singer, will be at the Lyric tonight at 8:30.

The Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra is scheduled for the Lyric on March 13 at 8:30.

Also starting on March 13, the Vagabond Players will present Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christie." "Anna Christie" was a Pulitzer Prize winner in 1921, and it is a character study of a young woman who falls in love and her struggle to deserve the love she inspires. This will be in the Arena Theatre at the Congress Hotel, and will run for two weeks.

The Washington Ballet comes to the Lyric tomorrow night at 8:30. They will present "Swan Lake" and two others.

The Lyric will have Erroll Garner on its stage on March 24.

The biggest deal in the movie houses, now, seems to be "Pepe." Cantiflas, who became known in "Around the World in 80 Days," is the star; he has with him many big supporters such as Kim Novak, Zsa Zsa Gabor, and Janet Leigh--sounds O.K.

"The Alamo" is another big one, starring John Wayne; it was nominated for seven Academy Awards, as was "Pepe."

The Aurora brought back an old favorite, "Carry On Nurse"--and she does.

A.S.N. Initiates New Members

Loyalty by its very nature is usually presented when a student is qualified according to both standards of scholarship and service.

To be elected to Alpha Sigma Nu, the process is such that the Society certifies to the Dean of Studies the names of eight students. From those certified, the Dean nominates four students.

Three for President

Likewise, the President of Loyola is empowered to appoint not more than three students from the junior and senior classes for membership in the Honor Fraternity for exceptionally distinguished service. Members are usually chosen in their junior year.

Alpha Sigma Num means, "Brotherhood of Honor Students." Founded at Marquette University in 1915, it continued as a local organization there until, in 1921, a chapter was established at Creighton University. At present, thirty-three Jesuit colleges and universities have chapters.

Father d'Inviolles

The Loyola chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu was instituted on March 29, 1942, and Fr. d'Inviolles was moderator from 1943 until 1947. Presently, Father has taken over as moderator for his sixth year again this year.

Functions of ASN

The organization was established to promote all the various activities of the college and all laudible activities of the students and the student organizations.

Alpha Sigma Nu also bands together those alumni who most fully understand and appreciate the ideals of a Jesuit education and to impress these ideals on their fellowmen.

Keys and Certificates

Preceding the ceremony Thursday evening, the initiation began with a dinner after which the standards of Alpha Sigma Nu were made known. Then the seven members were accepted by the college president. Each new member received keys with the name of the student and the date of admission, and certificates of membership.

Spot News

Canal Conference

The Fourth Annual Alumni Canal Conference will be held on March 12 at 1:30 in the Student Lounge and Cafeteria. The conference, which consists of three talks and a question and answer period, will be followed by a renewal of the marriage vows in the chapel. The talks are held for the alumni and their wives and all the married students and their wives are invited.

C. U. & "Phedra"

Student tickets are available for the Catholic University production of Racine's "Phedra." The presentation will be held on March 20 at 8 p.m. At the price of $1.50 per ticket, your order can be placed with Denny Smyth or Ed Conery.

Social Workers

Today at 11 p.m. in F3, Veryl Lewis, the Dean of the Social Work School, will speak to the sociology students. Mr. Lewis will speak on "The Opportunities for Social Workers." Everyone is invited to attend this lecture.

Do-Si-Do

The Sodality is holding a square dance on March 18 in the gym from 8:30 to midnight. The caller for the affair will be Fred Shankin. Free potato chips and pretzels will be supplied. The admission price of $1 per couple will be charged at the door.

Ball for All

The Green and Grey is sponsoring a Faculty-Student Basketball game today at 10:00. All the students and Faculty members are invited to attend.

Gershwin at the Lyric

Anyone interested in an evening of entertainment will enjoy this week's Saturday night Concert Series at the Lyric. Miss Virginia Reinecke will be the guest pianist with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. The program will consist of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" and "An American in Paris." Tickets range in price from 50¢ to $2.50 and can be obtained from the Central Ticket Agency.

Chairman of NCR

Dr. Morgan is a member of numerous medical and scientific societies, including the American Roentgen Ray Society, the Radiological Society of North America, The American College of Radiology and the Association of University Radiologists. He is chairman of the National Advisory Committee on Radiation.

Elections

New Ordinances

The most notable changes in the Election Ordinances of the Student Council involve the QPA requirements for elective office. These averages will be computed on a cumulative basis.

For the presidency of the Council and the Athletic Association, as well as the three class presidencies, a QPA of at least 2.5 is required of the nominee; an average of 2.0 or over is mandatory for all other offices.

No Erasures

A second, most important feature of the new ordinances requires that all information at the head of the petition sheet be filled out in ink before any student signatures are recorded. This information comprises the student's name, signature, class, course and specific office.

This bylaw of the Council further states that any defacement of the information at the top of the petition sheet will render that entry invalid. Such defacement may involve ink erasures, cross-outs or the like.

Any student, who thinks that he would like to "toss his hat in the ring" and join the "enviable" ranks of the campus politicians, should keep an eagle-eye on the bulletin board for important notifications.

Junior Plan April Prom

The junior class announces that the representative from the Tuxedo company will be at the school to measure juniors for their tuxes for the Prom on Wednesday, March 22 from 9 A.M. until 3 P.M. The measurement will take place in Xavier Lounge.

Junior Prom

The Junior Prom will be held on the night of Friday, April 21, at the Castaways North on York Rd. Music will be furnished by the Red Popoli and his orchestra.

Hors d'Oeuvres Yet

Hors d'oeuvres will be served at the dance, and the dance will be followed by a breakfast. For all this the juniors are paying the sum of $14.00.

Junior Petition

In addition to their other activities the junior class is currently circulating a petition to which over a hundred signatures have already been obtained.

Senior Week Dues

The petition calls for the Senior Week dues to be applied to the tuition bills for next year. This petition will be shortly presented to the Student Council and to the Administration.

GREYHOUND SPORTS

By Dick Cooke

Back in 1957, the prospects for a respected wrestling team here at Loyola were very dim. The men comprising the squad at that time were very enthusiastic; but, by the time the season got underway, the team had dwindled to ten men. Coach Elmer Bright, sensing the inevitable, asked Athletic Director Lefty Reitz that the wrestling schedule be cancelled due to "lack of interest." The wrestling team joined the ranks of defunct activities and remained that way for two years.

Clem Takes Over

Although participation in wrestling was at an all time low, there still existed a slight interest and a lot of talent. It was for the 1958-59 season that Dick Clem arrived on the scene as the new wrestling coach. Since then, Clem had worked hard to establish a name for Loyola's team and the wrestlers themselves have put in many hard hours under Clem's tutelage for the same reason. The results are evident by their record this past season.

Third Place

The team, captained by senior Charles Carey, won its last five matches to nail down third place in the Mason-Dixon Conference. Individual honors went to freshman Alex Schilpp this season who walked away with Loyola's only championship in the Mason-Dixon Tournament. This is certainly a far cry from the wrestling team's status a few years back. Congratulations to Loyola's matmen and Coach Dick Clem.

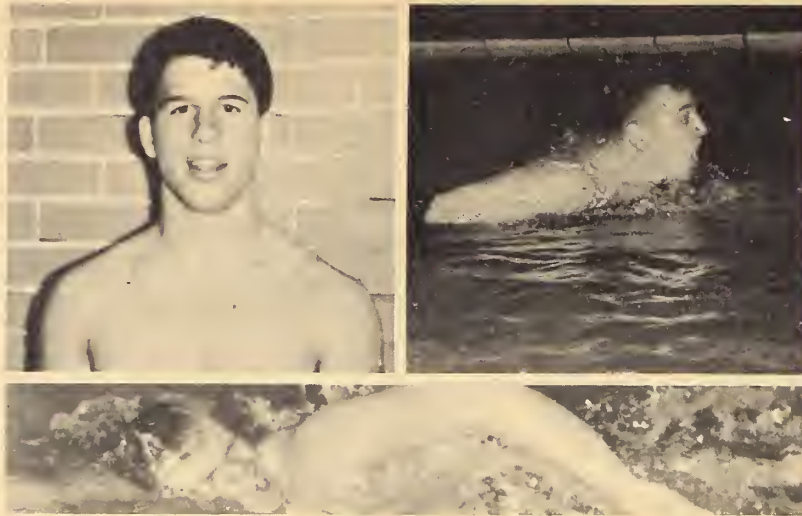

Rifleman O'Neill and Tinanoff fire on range as Sgt. Foley spots.

The Riflemen

Last Friday, Loyola's R.O.T.C. shooters traveled to Howard University and dropped a match by a score of 1391 to 1359. However the Loyola team, composed of only Freshmen and Sophomores, set a season's high score in their losing effort, topping the old record by eight points.

The 1359 total was also a school record for a Frosh-Soph team. The pointmakers for Loyola were Freshman Paul Schlick (284—a high for this season) and Sophs John Stranovsky (274), Nathan Tinanoff (273), Jim Smith (270), and Jim Abraham (258).

Pete Powley and Paul Karpers (top), members of the Medley Relay Team, and Marty Pilch, with 17 total points, led the Tank Team to victory in the M. D. Tournament.

Natators Cop Crown; Wrestlers Are Fifth

Swimmers

Paced by their four outstanding individual titlists, Loyola's swimmers took the Mason-Dixon tank crown last weekend at Gallaudet by a scant one point margin, 135-134, over runnerup American U. In a thrilling contest which just couldn't have been any closer, the Hounds trailed going into the final three events on the card. Then Marty Pilsch's clutch win in the 440 freestyle edged them ahead and, in the two remaining events, diver Vic Corbin and the medley relay team of Lew Smith, Paul Karpers, Pete Powley, and Marty Schnuit wrapped up the crown for Loyola.

Without question, the outstanding swimmer in the tourney was Hound Soph, Ken Freimuth. Veteran observers described his feats in teams ranging from "the best in M.D. history" to "fantastic." Ken won three individual titles, the 200 yd. butterfly and breaststroke events plus the 100 yd. breaststroke, and in all three races he set conference records.

Freshman Charley Bree was also widely acclaimed for his double triumphs in the 50 yd freestyle and the 100 yd. butterfly. Another Hound Frosh, Al Kubelius, set a M.D. mark in copping the 220 yd. freestyle and added two third place finishes in other freestyle races. Marty Pilsch, in addition to his fine 440 win, finished second to his team-mate in the 220. In their final college competition, Seniors Pete Powley and Paul Karpers turned in great performances. Besides their yeoman relay work, they notched two seconds and a third place between them. Backstroker Lew Smith churned to strong second and third place finishes in the 200 and 100 yd. events respectively. Team-mate Jim Burns took third in the 200 yarder. Ted Herget finished third in the 200 yd. breaststroke.

Grapplers

With several of the "Hound" favorites bowing out in the opening round, Loyola managed to collect 33 points and fifth place in the 1961 Mason-Dixon wrestling tournament this past weekend. The preliminary round saw Loyola matmen lampieri, Schilpp, McCarthy and Cary win while Emmett, Milligan, Buchness and Graham were defeated.

Carey Places Second

The only Loyola wrestlers who advanced to the finals were Carey at 191 and Schilpp at 137. Carey had little trouble in reaching the finals, but Otis Bradley of Hampton-Sydney proved too strong. He beat Carey on a 11-2 decision. This was the fourth straight year that Carey was just edged out in the finals.

Schilpp Wins

Freshman Alex Schilpp copped the only Loyola first place in the tournament. Alex, wrestling in the 137 pound class, pinned his two preliminary opponents and, in the finals, decisioned Jaffe of Hopkins for the championship. Alex was the only freshman in the entire tourney field to win a title.

Big Turnout In Lacrosse, Track

Coach Charlie Wenzel and Bill McElroy are both very pleased with the fine turnout of freshmen students for their lacrosse and track teams. However, both teams are marked by a glaring absence of seniors. Pete Powley, captain of the lacrosse team, is the only senior on either squad.

Bill McElroy has Arnie Sapperstein back to spearhead his 1961 track team. Arnie is the Mason-Dixon Conference Champion in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Rick Frampton and Denny Voith give the Hound trackmen great depth in the distance events. Frampton is currently the Mason-Dixon Cross Country Champion and Voith was the Maryland Scholastic Champion in the mile in 1960. Mac was visably pleased with the 18 freshmen, 17 sophs, and 7 juniors who reported for the opening workout.

Coach Charley Wenzel faces a real problem of inexperience with only one senior on the team. Stand-out junior Jim Lamar will probably see action in the goal. Defense positions candidates are sophs Marty Quinn and Tom Dailey and also freshmen Tom Milligan and Harry Quinn. At midfield, besides Powley, are: junior Ham Dugan and freshmen John Stuart and Jacque Remmell. Sophs Page Fried, Marty Pilsch, and Jay Henkle along with junior Mike Abromaitis and freshman John Mueller are battling for starting attack positions.

Links Outlook Bright; Newcomers Welcomed

Among the many sports not well known at Loyola is the golf team. According to Coach Doherty, the links outlook for the coming season is quite good.

The chief returnee from last year's squad is captain Chuck Pessagno. Nappy is counting on consistently solid performances from Chuck who was undefeated in match play last season. With backing from his teammates, Hound captain could lead Loyola into the thick of the title fight.

In addition to Pessagno, the veteran trio of Ed Conway, Jim Foley and Bill Mislosky will return for this season's action.

Despite the return of these stalwarts, Nappy encourages newcomers to try out for the squad. The Hounds need depth to back up their experienced members and this depth could be well supplied by a good crop of newcomers.

The schedule this year calls for six matches in addition to the M.D. championships at Stauton, Va.
